

The Cheyenne Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO) is NOW accepting applications for their Citizens' Advisory Committee (CAC).

Members of this committee shall serve as a primary means for public input for all transportation modes for the products and plans of the Cheyenne (MPO). They are to represent the citizens of their area which requires vigilance to the needs of those residents.

The Committee may consist of representatives from organizations with transportation related concerns or citizens with a particular interest in transportation. Members must live within the MPO boundary.

Citizen members can be drawn from such groups as: pedestrian and bicycle advocates, businesses, community service organizations, educators, environmentalists, persons with disabilities, public or private transportation providers, senior organizations, and safety professionals.

The prospective members will be required to submit an application that includes a short statement as to why they would be a good fit for the committee, including interest in transportation matters and pertinent qualifications.
